Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters

READ E. D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH'S LETTER.

PROSPECT COLLEGE, GEORGETOWN, D. C., [illegible] A. D. 1865.

MESSRS HOSTETTER & SMITH—Gentlemen: It gives me pleasure to add my testimonial to those of others in favor of your excellent preparation. Several years of residence on the banks of a Southern river, and of close application to literary work, had so thoroughly exhausted my nervous system, and undermined my health, that I had become a martyr to dyspepsia and nervous headache, recurring at short intervals, and defying all known remedies in the Materia Medica. I had come to the conclusion that nothing but a total change of residence and pursuits would restore my health, when a friend recommended Hostetter's Bitters. I procured a bottle as an experiment; it required but one bottle to convince me that I had found at last the right combination of remedies. The relief it afforded me has been complete. It is now some years since I first tried Hostetter's Bitters, and it is but just to say that I have found the preparation all that it claims to be. It is a Standard Family Cordial with us, and even as a stimulant we like it better than anything else; but we use it in all nervous, bilious, and dyspeptic cases, from fever down to toothache. If what I have now said will lead any dyspeptic or nervous invalid to a sure remedy, I shall have done some good.

I remain, gentlemen, respectfully yours,

E. D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH.

Hostetter's Bitters

Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 64 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Fourth street.

American Vessel Seized and Confiscated.

NEW YORK, March 21—The Herald's Sisal (Yucatan) correspondent, of the 10th inst., gives an account of the seizure and confiscation in that port by the Mexican Imperial authorities, of the American schooner Wilson Crawford, and the fining and imprisonment of her master, because some powder was found on board the vessel. The master's sentence was ten years penal labor, but he was pardoned by the Empress. Immediately after regaining his liberty, however, he was once more arrested and sentenced to pay a fine of five hundred dollars, which he avoided liquidating by secretly leaving the country.

INTERESTING FROM MEXICO.

THE MURDER OF THE BELGIUM ENVOY.

Reported Defeat of the Juarists.

CHANGES IN THE IMPERIAL CABINET.

HAVANA, March 17.—The steamship Panama arrived yesterday, three days from Vera Cruz. She brings dates to the morning of the 12th inst., and from the City of Mexico to the 8th. There is but little news of importance. The papers are filled with accounts of the murder of the Belgium envoys, General Bourvaine and Capt. D. Ruaix. The funeral obsequies were celebrated in the City of Mexico with great pomp, on the 7th, Maximilian and Carlotta attending.

There is no account of a defeat of the Juarists under Perfirio, Diaz, Lenis, Pseza, Lorez Gonzalez, and Leguro. Strange to say every Juarist general has been captured, except the ladies, who are reported to have escaped on foot, the attacking party being cavalry.

The Emperor of Austria has just sent by the Count Bombelli, the original letters of arms of Montezuma, and one of the original letters of Hernan Cortez, of Mexico. They are from the Royal Museum of Vienna.

The appointment of Hildalgo, Minister to France, has been accepted, and Gen. Almonte appointed in his place.

There have been several changes in the so called Imperial Cabinet, but they are of little interest to the public generally.

Our latest dates from Matamoras are to the 2d. Considerable indignation has been occasioned here by the publication in the papers that the cholera was raging. There has not been a case of Asiatic cholera here. The small pox is decreasing in Regla.

Senators Foote and Dixon—Case of a Chicago Postmaster—The Tax on Loans—Freedmen's Contribution from England—The Civil Rights Bill—Government Coupon Counterfeits—Transportation of Petroleum.

NEW YORK, March 21.—Senators Dixon and Foote are daily growing worse. There is still hope of the recovery of the latter.

Ike Cook, of Chicago, who was sued by the mail car of the Postoffice for the balance due the Department from him, as Postmaster at that city, in 1862, has paid up the amount of five thousand two hundred dollars, and the case has been dismissed.

Controller Clarke states that twenty-seven millions of dollars, of the ten-forty loan, was not issued; that recently, however, three millions of dollars in addition to the amount already has been quietly issued of this old loan, and at six per cent. interest.

Another contraband, amounting to nearly one thousand dollars in value, from the Birmingham, England, Freedmen's Association, has just been received by General Howard, and will be distributed among the needy of the destitute colored people in the South.

General Spinola publishes a letter in the Washington Chronicle in which he animadverts severely upon Controller Clark's statements regarding the amount of Government bonds on hand.

A Washington special says: It was current-reported last night, that the President has notified his determination to veto the "Civil Rights" bill.

The Herald's Washington special says: The counterfeiting of Government coupons has been carried to such an extent that the Treasury department has decided to engrave vignettes of the President's head on the printed upon all the future issues, and thereby render engraving as necessary to a counterfeit coupon as to the note or bond. Portraits of the Presidents, McCulloch, Grant, Sherman and others are executed for this purpose.

The Times' special says: Several Collectors of Customs have sent communications to the Secretary of the Treasury, asking instructions in regard to the transportation of crude and refined petroleum. They ask if the penalties of the law of August 30th, 1862, shall be enforced against steamboats for transporting crude and refined petroleum without special license. In other words does petroleum come under the class of other explosive burning fluids. The Secretary replies that the Department has not decided that crude and refined petroleum are of that character, and until otherwise ordered, these commodities can be carried as freight without special license, proper care being observed in its storage with reference to the safety from the hazard of fire. Mr. McCulloch has referred the question of the explosive quality of petroleum to a special board of chemists and experts, with directions to report at the earliest moment. The action of this board will guide the Secretary in making rules hereafter as to the transportation of petroleum.

Smuggling Brig Detected—O'Mahoney bonds in Ireland—The Iron Moulders' Difficulty.

NEW YORK, March 21.—The revenue cutter Maine detected the brig Lafayette Hyde, from Cuba, endeavoring to make Newport harbor with a large quantity of cigars, tobacco, sugar and linen, which was not on her manifest.

A Dublin correspondent of the London Times says that a number of bonds issued by Fenians in the city of Waterford, from New York, bearing a likeness in the form of bank notes, and signed by O'Mahoney and two others. They are for sums varying from twenty to fifty pounds, bearing 8 per cent. interest, to be paid when the Irish Republic is established. With this remarkable peculiarity, they are bonds on the Curraghmore estate.

The iron moulders of Albany and Troy have ceased from work. They talk of establishing a co-operative foundry of their own.

Wurtemburg Consul Recognized—The Rinderpest.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The President has recognized F. A. Santers as Consul of Wurtemburg at Galveston, Texas.

A. Frazier, of Germany, has addressed a communication to the Department of State, suggesting a means of preventing the spread of Rinderpest. The theory is that the diseased animals poison the atmosphere. Hence they are to be separated from the healthy animals, and the latter lubricated with petroleum, and a small quantity of the oil mixed with their food. The communication has been sent to the House Committee on Agriculture.

Comptroller Clarke—Decision Against Negroes.

NEW YORK, March 21.—Controller Clarke has sent the following injurious letter to the New York Commercial Advertiser:

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Gentlemen: I am informed you have published a most infamous, slanderous, attack against me. If I am correctly informed you see the necessity of making a proper retraction.

Respectfully yours, F. CLARKE.

Judge Thompson, of Philadelphia, has decided that colored persons must not ride in cars provided for white men in that city. The case will be appealed.

For the West Indies.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The bill to equalize bounties, introduced by Mr. Julian to day, and referred to the Committee on Military Affairs, provides for the payment to every soldier and sailor, who served during the late war, and who has been or who may be honorably discharged, a bounty of $8,28⅝ for every month of service rendered; provided that in the case of discharge on account of wounds received in action, the full bounty shall be paid for the term of service for which the enlistment was made. No bounty is to be paid to any soldier or sailor who was a prisoner of war at the time of his enlistment, or who had been discharged at his own request, unless for the purpose of re-enlistment or to accept promotion, nor to any sailor whose prize money shall exceed the amount of bounty he would have been entitled to.

Fairfield, of California, to be agent for the Mound Valley Indians; Josh Boughton, of New Mexico, to be Associate Justice of New Mexico.

Minister Romero has received official dates from El Paso, to the 23d of February, confirming the final evacuation of the City of Chihuahua, by the French troops.

Lieut-General Grant has ordered that commanding officers of posts and departments will, as soon as practicable, send to their deserters at their posts, forward the charges of the commanding officer of the department in which their posts or departments may be situated, who will, with as little delay as practicable, take measures to have deserters brought to trial.

Advices from Montgomery, Alabama, dated the 16th inst., are received by Dr. C. W. Horner, chief medical officer of the Freedmen's Bureau, informing him that a report was in circulation there that the cholera had made its appearance at Mobile, Alabama, on the eighth. The report was not traced to any reliable source.

XXVIIth CONGRESS---FIRST SESSION

WASHINGTON, March 21, 1866.

SENATE.

Mr. Brown introduced a bill to aid in the construction of the Kansas and Neosho Valley railroad, connecting the Great Lakes, Iowa, Missouri and Kansas with the Gulf of Mexico, and to secure to the Government the use of the same for military, postal and other purposes. Referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

Mr. Ramsey presented the memorial of the Minnesota Legislature asking an appropriation for the improvement of the harbors on Lake Superior; also for the establishment of a port of entry at the head of Lake Superior. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

Mr. Cowan presented two petitions for a protective tariff, numerously signed, which were referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Cowan also presented the petition of Assistant Surgeons for an increase of pay. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Pomeroy called up the Senate bill to grant lands to the State of Kansas to aid in the construction of the Northern Kansas Railroad, which was passed.

The following bill was called up by Mr. Pomeroy and passed:

A bill more effectually to provide for the punishment of certain crimes against the United States.

Section 1. That if any person or persons shall falsely make, alter, forge or counterfeit, cause or procure to be falsely made, altered, forged or counterfeited, or willingly aid or assist in the false making, altering, forging or counterfeiting any bond, bid, proposal, guarantee, security, official bond, public record, affidavit or other writing, for the purpose of defrauding the United States, or shall utter, publish as true, or cause to be altered, or published as true, any bond, bid, false forged, altered or counterfeited bond, bid, proposal, guarantee, security, official bond, public record, affidavit or other writing, for the purpose of defrauding the United States, knowing the same to be false, forged, altered, or counterfeited, or shall transmit to or present at, or cause or procure to be transmitted to or presented at any office or officer of the United States, any such false, forged, altered or counterfeited bond, bid, proposal, guarantee, security, official bond, public record, affidavit, or other writing, knowing the same to be false, forged, altered or counterfeited for the purpose of defrauding the United States, or any officer thereof, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding $10,000, and be kept at hard labor for a period not exceeding ten years, or be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars, or both of said punishments, at the discretion of the Court.

Section 2. That if any offense shall be committed in any place which has been or shall hereafter be ceded to, and under the jurisdiction of the United States, which offense is not punishable, or the punishment thereof is not specially provided for by any law of the United States, such offense shall, upon conviction in any court of the United States having cognizance thereof, be liable to receive the same punishment as the laws of the State in which such place is situated may be situated, and now in force, provided for the like offense, when committed within the jurisdiction of such State; and no subsequent repeal of any such State law shall affect any such punishment or defense in any of the courts of the United States.

Mr. Harris reported from the Judiciary Committee a bill concerning writs of error and injunctions.

Mr. Steward reported from the Committee on Judiciary, the bill to provide for the reports of decisions of the Supreme Court, with an amendment striking out all of the enacting clause, and inserting a provision for extending the term of six months provided for the publication of reports to ten months.

At the expiration of the morning hour, the unfinished business of yesterday, which was the bill to authorize the establishment of telegraphic communication between the United States and the West Indies was taken up, the pending question being upon Mr. Sherman's amendment to the last section, authorizing Congress to fix the rate to be charged by the company.

Mr. Chandler said the Committee on Commerce had bestowed more care on the pending bill than any bill before it this session. He regarded it as the most important bill before the Senate.

Mr. Fessenden said that when the proper time arrived he should offer an amendment to strike out the provision giving a sole privilege to this company, and inserting in lieu of it a provision that no company shall be authorized to establish telegraphic communication between the coast of the United States and any foreign country through the waters of the United States without the consent of Congress.

The yeas and nays were demanded by Mr. Sherman's amendment, which was disapproved, by yeas 17, nays 19.

Mr. Fessenden moved by requiring the completion of the work in three years instead of five, as in the bill originally. The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Harris said Congress had exclusive jurisdiction over the Marine League, but the company would have to get authority also from the State of Florida for jurisdiction over the territory between the two waters.

The bill was then read a third time and passed.

Mr. Chandler gave notice that he would at an early day call up a bill to regulate commerce between the several States.

The House bill relating to the habeas corpus was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Nesmith called up the bill authorizing and requiring the Secretary of the Treasury to issue to Messrs. Goldsmith, & Bros., of California and Oregon, $5,000 in 7-30 bonds in lieu of a like amount lost.

Mr. Clark moved to strike out the words "and requiring," from the bill. The Secretary of the Treasury would then be simply authorized to make good the loss, and would undoubtedly do so when satisfied that it was insured as stated. The amendment was agreed to, and the bill then passed.

Mr. Morrill called up the bill to incorporate the National Mutual Protection Homestead Company. It incorporates certain parties, under the name and style of the National Mutual Protection Homestead Company for the encouragement of settlement, and the organization of the American States, with a capital of $5,000,000.

A resolution was passed authorizing naval vessels to be placed at the disposal of the Quarantine Commissioners of New York for one year.

The House bill relating to the writ of habeas corpus was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

A bill was passed authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to issue five thousand dollars to Goldsmith & Bros., of California, for a like amount lost at sea.

The bill incorporating the National Mutual Protection Homestead Company was taken up, read, discussed and postponed till to-morrow.

A joint resolution authorizing Commodore Hanford to accept the decoration from the King of Italy was passed.

The Senate went into executive session, and afterwards adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Mr. Price, of Iowa, from the Committee on the Pacific Railroad, reported back a bill to secure the speedy construction of the Northern Pacific Railroad and Telegraph Line, &c., which was recommitted and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Julian introduced a bill to equalize the bounties of soldiers and sailors who served in the United States army and navy during the late rebellion, which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. Henderson presented the joint resolution of the Legislature of Oregon in regard to war claims.

Mr. Ward, of New York, made a statement to the House that he received numerous letters from the friends and relatives of deceased soldiers buried in the Cemetery of Arlington Heights as to the title which the Government had to the property. Fearing that the bones of the soldiers there might revert to the heirs of the arch-traitor, he had addressed a communication to the Secretary of War on the subject, and had received an answer which he deemed of sufficient public importance to have read. The letter from the Secretary of War was read, stating that at a sale of lands for unpaid taxes on the 11th of January, 1864, the Arlington estate, including the grounds referred to, had been bidden for the United States for $26,800, and afterwards turned over to the military authorities. The certificate of sale was in the hands of the U. S. Tax Commissioner at Alexandria, but would be soon placed on file in the Treasury Department.

Mr. Hubbard, of Iowa, introduced a bill granting lands to the State of Iowa, in alternate sections to aid in the construction of the Iowa Central Railroad, which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

Mr. Grinnell, of Iowa, presented a joint resolution of the Legislature of the State of Iowa, in reference to a Bureau of National Education, which were referred to a Select Committee.

The House proceeded to the consideration of the diplomatic appropriation bill reported yesterday from the Committee on the Whole.

The vote on the amendment authorizing the appointment of a Solicitor to the State Department, at a salary of $3,000 was taken by yeas and nays, and resulted as follows: Year, 72 nays, 39.

The other amendments were also agreed to and the bill passed.

The House proceeded to the consideration of the act to facilitate commercial, postal and military communication among the several States, which had been recommitted to the Judiciary Committee for such amendments as would prevent the land granted to railroads, such as the Illinois Central, from receiving pay from the Government. The bill was passed; yeas 69, nays 46.

A resolution was reported from the Printing Committee for printing the annual report of the Commissioner of Patents for 1865 and passed 1,000 copies for the use of the Senate, 3,000 copies for the House, and 5,000 for the Commissioner.

Mr. Latham asked leave to introduce a resolution declaring Tennessee in a condition to be represented in the House, and relieving the Reconstruction Committee from further consideration of their case, but objections were made.

The House went into Committee of the Whole and took up the bill to reimburse Pennsylvania for war expenditures.

An amendment was agreed to, reducing the amount to $600,000.

Mr. Blaine moved to substitute a bill reimbursing the States 50 per cent. of their war expenses. The total amount embraced in Mr. Blaine's bill is one hundred and eight seven millions of dollars.

Considerable debate ensued, but without the disposal of the subject.

Mr. Blaine's bill proposes to reimburse twenty-five per cent. of the war expenses of the States, the amount to be distributed in 6 per cent. bonds, in proportion to the number of soldiers furnished by the States respectively—fifty-five dollars for each man furnished; the bonds not to be negotiated for twenty years from date. The total amount embraced in the bill is one hundred and eighteen millions dollars. His bill would nominally and really add to the national debt, for the local and State debt would be relieved in a proportionate degree, and the local debt was the most oppressive of all, for it called for a direct tax on real and personal property to pay both interest and principal, and this direct tax was all the more oppressive on the agricultural community, from the fact that so large a proportion of personal property had sought investment in government bonds, which were specially exempt from State and municipal taxation. The general government had, moreover, absorbed all the indirect and readily available channels of taxation, and had thus taken from the States all the easy modes of raising revenue. To quote the language of Mr. Hamilton, used in regard to the revolutionary debt in 1790: "Justice is not completely fulfilled until the entire debt of every State, contracted in support of the war, is embraced in one general and comprehensive plan of payment."

From California—Alleged Bribery Case Dismissed—Gold Raising Stocks.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 21.—Honolula dates of the 6th of February state that the eruption of the great volcano has ceased.

The Flag newspaper having charged the members of the State Senate with bribery, in voting against the specific contract vessel act, a investigation committee was appointed, and D. O. After lying in prison a month, the Senate has released him, and dropped all action in the investigation. McCarthy will, it is stated, produce his witnesses as the investigation proceeds.

Kentucky Soldiers' convention—Attempted Suicide of an Alleged Assassin.

LOUISVILLE, March 21.—The Kentucky Soldiers' Convention meets here on the 16th and 17th of April. Arrangements have been made to bring soldiers at half fare over the principal roads. All officers and soldiers who served in Kentucky regiments are cordially invited. A large attendance is expected.

Liquor Seizures in Massachusetts.

NEW YORK, March 21.—At Taunton, Massachusetts, on the assignment there last week by the State Constables, were yesterday re-seized by the United States Marshal, and returned to the owners. Massachusetts prohibits liquor traffic, but licenses distilleries. The United States grants licences for such sales under which certain citizens of Massachusetts pursue their business in defiance of the State law, and are protected by the United States authority. This raises a question of the power indirectly of a busine-s prohibited by the State. The case excites much comment.

Fenian Meeting in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, March 21.—The third of the series of meetings of the friends of Irish nationality was held to-night at the American Mechanics' Hall, Broad street. Head centre, Andrew Wynnes, presided. Stirring speeches were made by Gen. B. F. Mullin, S. J. Meary and Major Haggarty. Speaking of neutrality law, Gen. Mullin said, the course pursued by Stephens and O'Mahoney would not, and did not, meditate any violation of them on military and naval operations. The resolutions, but suggestive. He contended for the law of retribution.

The Gee Case—Murderer Released—Freedmen's Bureau Criminal Cases.

NEW YORK, March 21.—The Tribune's Raleigh correspondent telegraphs that the Gee case will last till June.

A citizen, convicted by the Military Commission at Richmond, of the murder of some Union soldiers, has been released by the Secretary of War because of a clerical error in the report.

The Freedmen's Bureau in Virginia and North Carolina have turned criminal cases over to civil courts

Norfolk Oyster Trade—Clement C. Clay.

FORTRESS MONROE, March 20.—A large meeting was held at Norfolk lately, to protest against the present regulations of the oyster trade and to take measures to test their legality. Strong resolutions were adopted on the subject.

It is reported that Clement C. Clay has been allowed on his parole of honor the liberty of the grounds within the walls of the fortress during the day, retiring to his cell only at night.

Rhode Island Democratic Convention.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 21.—The Democratic State Convention was held to-day. Thos. Stilene, of Smithfield, presided. Wm. J. Miller and Geo. N. Bliss were chosen Secretaries. No nominations for State officers were made. A committee was raised to bring forward a ticket hereafter if deemed expedient. CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company—Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company was held on Wednesday, March 21st, at the office of the Company in this city.

John Larimer, Esq., of Wooster, was called to preside, and F. M. Hutchinson, Esq., acted as Secretary.

It was resolved that the polls for the annual election of Directors should open at noon and close at two o'clock P. M.

Gen. George W. Cass, President of the Company, then submitted the annual report of the Board of Managers, an abstract of which we append below.

The report shows the gross earnings for the year 1865 to be as follows:

From Passengers.....	$3,391,221 46
" Freight.....	4,738,067 88
" Mails.....	93,900 00
" Express.....	140,658 00
" Rents.....	4,961 12
" Miscellaneous.....	25,354 08
Total.....	$8,489 56

The expenditures were:

Maintenance of Way.....	$1,341,5 25
" Cars.....	531,5 3 94
" Motive Power.....	1,920,94 54
Conducting Transportation.....	1,220,978 76
General Expenses.....	587,740
Total.....	$5,205,515

Which leaves a balance of $3,283,340 95 for the net income arising from the operations of the Railway.

The financial operations of the company are set forth as follows:

Total Income.....	$4,620,696 01
Total Disbursements.....	4,250,275 11
Surplus.....	$370,320 93

To this latter amount add the investment in the Akron Branch road, $173,820.40, which gives a total of $550,150.33 above all expenses and liabilities, January 1, 1866.

The expenses of working the road have been 61¼ per cent. of the gross income. The earnings of 1865 exceeded those of 1864 $1,308,990.80, or about 19 1-5 per cent.

In referring to the future the report says "the Board is unwilling to venture an estimate for the current year, in view of the paralysis of the industrial and commercial interests of the country, growing out of the transition state through which it is passing." It is stated, however, that the position of the road is such as to give it a full share of the business of the country, whatever that business may be, and such as to enable the company to accomplish favorable results in the working of the road out of whatever traffic may offer. The entire road is reported in excellent condition. More than one-half of the entire 468 miles between Pittsburgh and Chicago have been renewed within the past two years, and all paid for out of the earnings—a result which it is believed no other company ever accomplished in a like period of time.

The total length of sidings laid during the year was 12 miles and 2250 feet, making 95 miles and 227 feet now in use. There were two new locomotives added during the year, making the total number 110. Passenger and freight equipment was very materially increased during the year.

The report then refers to the contract between this Company and the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Company, and states that the amount paid under the contract is not large for the object gained. It was not expected that any considerable sum should be paid out of the income of either party to gain these results, and the Boards of the respective companies have concluded a supplement to the original contract, which was executed on the 7th of February last. The supplement was read and received the approval of the stockholders.

The Board then alludes to the purchase and operation of the Akron Branch in Summit, 35 one miles in length, and extending from Hudson, on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh road, to Millersburg, the county seat of Holmes county. The amount paid for this little road was $479,829.40, and the low price, together with the object gained of preventing the road from falling into unfriendly hands, induced the purchase, which it is believed will prove profitable.

The lease of the New Castle and Beaver Valley Railroad is referred to. The results have shown that the arrangement is a profitable one, and that it will always prove remunerative to this company, and also to the shareholders of the N. C. & B. V. R. R. Co. The gross earnings of the latter company, from July 1st to Dec. 31st, 1865, was $79 013.67, of which 60 per cent. or $47,323.67 was due to the P. W. F. & C. R. W. Co.

The report then refers to four railway projects making Fort Wayne a terminus, and discusses their importance. Two of these will be completed as feeders to the main line of the company.

The establishment of Transportation Lines is next referred to. For ten months the Company declined to admit these lines, but found themselves, by reason of transportation agencies or contracts, obliged to establish some of them, but in so doing have taken such precaution as will give the greatest satisfaction to shippers, and protect the company against risk, and in the absence of any loss to the interests of the business due to the railroad companies. Thus far the result has shown an increase in the business from points reached by these transfers in the route by shippers, and an increase of net revenue without a corresponding increase of capital.

The Board conclude by acknowledging the fidelity, industry, and capacity with which the business of the road has been managed during the past year by the several executive officers and their subordinates in their respective departments.

The report was accepted and adopted, after which the meeting was organized.

The following named gentlemen were duly elected Directors for the ensuing year:

J. F. D. Lanier, Lewis H. Bierce, Samuel J. Tilden, New York; J. Edgar Thompson, G. W. Cass, Springer Harbaugh, Pennsylvania, Kent Jarvis, R. H. Springer, Hon. John Sherman, Ohio, Samuel Hinds, Illinois, Calvin Fletcher, Indiana, Oliver Hoagland, Indiana, Wm. B. Ogden, Illinois.

PERILS OF REPUBLICS.

There are persons who have dreamed the United States was to share none of the great perils which the history of the world—the recorded experience of mankind—attests to have been the common lot of popular governments. An idea has possessed them that, although the large majority of our population belong to the race which has been more conspicuous than any other for its lust of domination; whose leaders have, through all the ages, disclosed an indomitable purpose to "ride upon the high places of the earth," to monopolize power; to tyrannize over their fellows; to establish governments on the basis of prescriptive rights; and to make the multitude bend their necks in humble submission; that mere transplantation to this continent had eradicated evil desires, in this direction at least; and that republican institutions were secure beyond the possibility of being overthrown. The events of the last few years have shaken these unsuspecting individuals out of their dream of security. A war, beyond comparison, the most formidable and sanguinary this century has witnessed, and entered upon for the express purpose of overturning popular institutions and setting up a government founded on privilege and caste, has led them to juster conceptions of the irrepressible ambition of the Caucasian race. They now see that the same dangers that beset political liberty in Europe are all latent here, modified and restrained, indeed, by differences of situation, but liable at all times to flash out with the intensest fury.

It has often happened that an autocracy, by slow degrees or by sudden convulsion, has been reduced to a constitutional monarchy, under which, while political rights were greatly restricted, personal liberty was measurably maintained. Such a change has rarely fallen to the lot of a republic. When a nation, accustomed to liberty, in the large and just sense, breaks from its moorings, it commonly rushes to the opposite extreme, and passes under the rule of a despot. Powerful reasons exist for this tendency, and the process by which it is developed, though not invariably the same, is identical in the majority of instances.

When anarchy supervenes in a republic there is but one door of deliverance there from, and that is a dictator. In looking over the facts of history it will be found that an anarchical condition arises principally from two causes. 1. From the general decadence of physical and moral strength. This is not our present case. A people, we have demonstrated, and are demonstrating, the possession of unmatched power, physical and moral. 2. From the spirit of faction. With this spirit few nations have been more thoroughly imbued than the people of this country are at this moment.

We are in a revolutionary epoch. While we were exchanging congratulations over deliverance from one great danger another loomed up before us. Successfully did we brave the perils of battle. Was it only to perish ignominiously of faction?

Nothing is plainer than that, in free governments, the chambers of the representative bodies are the sanctuaries of freedom. Instances can certainly be adduced in which constituent assemblies have arrogated authority and plunged the State into the deepest miseries; but these are exceptional cases. The whole current of experience is the other way. In the vast majority of instances dangers have arisen from the encroachments of the Executive on the prerogatives of the chambers; and when the representatives are driven out or suppressed there is always an end to free government. The Executive centres all power in his own hands. He does not stand alone; for no man stands alone in any of the relations of life; but he stands by the combined influence of powerful and mercenary classes. The nation is under a despotism from which there is no no escape, and not unfrequently before it suspects peculiar peril.

These are considerations which suggest the wisdom of moderating rather than inflaming passions. We are passing through an ordeal the end of which no human sagacity can foresee. Mr. SEWARD may fancy all is "lovely;" but cool and self-possessed men, without political ambitions to gratify, and with no parts to play in the stately drama of affairs, know full well that all the wisdom, calmness, patriotism and courage of the nation are needed to so settle the issues that confront us as to conduce to order, peace and liberty.

THE STATE OF THE SOUTH.

The conspirators who have been trying to force the revolted States back into the Union, upon the plea that they are now loyal and trusty, are appalled at the testimony produced before the Reconstruction Committee, which has partially been laid before the public. From this testimony, which comes from witnesses whose veracity cannot be questioned, it is clear that there is no such thing as true loyalty in the South—that its people submit to what they cannot help, but are still as hostile to the Government as ever. The substance of the testimony is thus tersely stated by the Washington Chronicle:

I. That there is throughout the South a general hostility toward the Government of the United States, and a manifest indisposition upon the part of the people, especially the pardoned leaders and politicians, to accept the results of the rebellion.

II. That there is a disposition to proscribe Unionists, whether found in the South, or coming from the North, or in other words to make loyalty odious and treason respectable, and that there is an unconcealed hatred toward the freedmen, and a general desire to oppress them.

III. That so far as all the elements of good citizenship are concerned, the negroes are better prepared for enfranchisement than the poor whites. They are more loyal, more industrious, more anxious to obtain an education, and better able to take care of themselves and those dependent upon them.

IV. That there is a wide-spread desire upon the part of the more wealthy and influential of the late traitors to assume the rebel debt and to demand compensation for their liberated slaves.

V. That the genuine loyalists of the South are for obvious reasons against the admission of the late rebels to power, either in the State or National Government.

VI. That the magnanimous policy of the Government has not been reciprocated, and that the pardoning of the leading rebels has had an injurious effect upon the work of restoration, and has tended to discourage loyalty.

ANOTHER RAID ON PENNSYLVANIA.

During the last two years the work of building a line of railroad from Albany, N. Y. up to Cooperstown, in Otsego county, and thence down the Susquehanna river, to Binghamton, has been vigorously pushed. Recently a line of railroad has been projected, starting from Utica, N. Y., up the Sauquoit creek to the summit, thence down the Unadilla to the Susquehanna, and thence across to the Delaware, reaching that stream at or near Hancock, in Delaware county. A heavy subscription to the stock of this Company by the city of Utica makes its completion certain.

A month ago a bill was passed by the Legislature of Pennsylvania authorizing the construction of a railroad, starting on the Susquehanna, in Luzerne county, at or near Wilkesbarre, thence up the Lackawanna to the summit in Wayne county, and thence down to the Delaware, the intention being, to intersect the Utica road at Hancock. New York capitalists are interested in this project, and the road will be pressed to completion with the least possible delay.

These improvements will open an outlet for coal from Luzerne county directly to Albany; also to Utica, and thence to Syracuse, at which latter point coal is fast superceding wood as fuel in the evaporation of salt. Probably, upon the completion of these lines a million tons of coal annually will be sent over them to market, to the great profit of Luzerne county. As these lines do not run by way of Philadelphia, it is fair to presume the traffic will be held in high judicial quarters to be unconstitutional; and that the Legislature will be promptly importuned to repeal the charter recently granted, before the ink with which the attestation of its passage was signed shall be fairly dry.

CONNECTICUT.—The Hartford Press speaks very encouragingly of the prospects in that State. It says:

"The canvass is progressing with the most encouraging indications of a larger majority for the Union ticket than was expected. Our reports from country towns, where the canvass has been completed, show that the Union ranks are not only unbroken, but larger than ever. The fact is that the people, who have carried this war through, have no idea of throwing the State into the hands of the Copperheads, or of deserting the great Union party which can alone be trusted to settle our national troubles. They know that the party now asking power attempted to betray the country in 1861, and to break up the Union for four years thereafter, and they have no confidence in them."

The same paper says that the Postmaster at Hartford is advertised to speak at a Democratic meeting in that city.

THE ATTEMPT to make a "demonstration" out of the Johnson meeting on Tuesday night is simply ridiculous. The meeting had in it none of the elements of strength or force. At no time was there a thousand persons present, and the most of those were attracted by "music by the band." At any time during the meeting a fair poll of those present would have shown a large majority against the men who got up the meeting, and the most of those who voted for the resolutions were copperheads. Every unprejudiced looker on regarded the whole affair as a laughable burlesque in which none but the few actors were in earnest.

CHAIRMAN OF THE STATE COMMITTEE.—Hon. FRANCIS JORDAN, of Bedford, has been appointed Chairman of the Republican State Committee. This is an excellent appointment. Col. JORDAN is at present Military State Agent at Washington, in which capacity he has rendered a huge amount of service to the soldiers of the State. He is a man of energy, ability and integrity, and will no doubt at once inaugurate an active campaign.

EQUALIZATION OF BOUNTIES.—Mr. JULIAN, chairman of the Committee of Public Lands, in the House, has reported against the Equalization of Bounties by grants of public lands to the soldiers, upon the ground that it would end in throwing the public lands thus donated into the hands of speculators, and would consequently operate to the detriment of actual settlers. If bounties are equalized at all, it will be in money.

WE understand that the agent of the Associated Press in this city was asked to telegraph to the press of the country that the JOHNSON meeting on Tuesday night numbered five thousand! He declined to prostitute the telegraph in that way, and the party who asked it to be done sent the deceptive dispatch off, with his own name to it, addressed to a paper in Washington that swallows everything in that line that can be sent it.

A very truthful woman, however, living in the country, came to town last week, and told a near friend of ours that she had tried to get a corset made, but was told it would not be done under two weeks, because all hands in the large establishments she visited were engaged in making false calves for "ladies" who wear the tilting hoops.

On last Sunday, walking home from Church through several fashionable streets, we noticed women walking with tilting skirts from behind which it has been pretending to say their prayers; and, on all the corners, and on hotel fronts, we saw rows of well dressed blackguards, standing, observing, and laughing, and commenting on what these women were exhibiting.

We imagine the feelings of a young and innocent lady from the country, who last week visited New York city and tried to get a corset made, but was told it could not be done under two weeks, because all hands in the large establishments she visited were engaged in making false calves for ladies who wear tilting skirts. Tilting skirts are now "all the rage," and have been in New York city for some time. The thing is brought about by having hoops made with a sharp and stiff bounce at the foot, that will tilt the dress and expose more or less of what, for the long dresses, is visible only in the imagination.

One of the latest fashions, is to have dancing soirees "for young people." The rule of this fashion is, that no parent or guardian be admitted. During the past winter, fathers and mothers have permitted their daughters to go to these soirees with young men, to sup and to dance, and to come home with them at three and four o'clock in the morning. Young girls do not find it hard on their characters to go with young men, unaccompanied by their parents, to a public hotel, to dance and eat and drink with them, and to come home with them towards daylight!

If the Commercial's method of manufacturing editorials is fairly attributable to "enterprising journalism," the less we have of it the better. QUIZ.

OUR SOUTHERN CORRESPONDENCE.

LETTER FROM MR. E. H. IRISH.

NEW ORLEANS, March 13th 1866.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Dear Sirs: Having been recommended to make a trip through the South for the benefit of my health, and entertaining a strong desire to see for myself something of what is being said and done touching political questions in the Southern States. I left Pittsburgh on the 28th of February for this place, by way of St. Louis, and arrived here on the night of Saturday the 10th inst.

There is little of incident to relate, (provided you are not blown up in a trip from Pittsburgh to New Orleans. Though of course you do not willingly miss the opportunity of viewing as you pass the different points made memorable by the war. The first point which arrests your attention after leaving Cairo, is Columbus, Kentucky, and the town of Belmont, which was the scene of General Grant's first battle, the former place being the point from which our troops re-embarked on board transports after the reverses of the day. Next comes Island No. 10: all the fortifications of which, and half the island itself have been washed away since the war. A few years more and nothing will be left of it, except its history. Then comes Vicksburgh.

The fortifications at this place remain pretty much as they were at the close of the war.—The amount of work which the rebels expended on this place is almost incredible. Naturally a very strong position, they made it a perfect Gibralter, impregnable to every assault, except that of famine.

The town itself is a very indifferent one in appearance. There is scarcely what would be called at the North, a good dwelling house in the place.

The spot where Pemberton surrendered to Grant—the log upon which they sat and discussed the terms of surrender, is the point of interest, par excellence, pointed out to northern visitors by the colored drivers who show us about the place. Natchez is altogether a better looking town. Large, commodious, elegant residences abound, surrounded by fine grounds, beautifully ornamented with trees and shrubbery. To be sure there does not appear to be much business doing—the little negroes are playing by hundreds in the streets, and the bar keepers seemed to be the only active members of society. For the rest it seemed like Sunday. The town wears an aristocratic air of repose, as if it were above work, above business, above every thing except to be waited upon by somebody, and as if that somebody was not at hand to attend to his duties.

As it was late on Saturday night before our boat reached the wharf at this city, we did not come on shore until Sunday morning. Sunday in New Orleans! What a shock to the feelings and sensibilities of a northern man to enter the city on Sunday. You can hardly realize that it is Sunday. It is more like the Fourth of July in a northern city. To be sure the principal whole sale houses are closed, but the wharf and the streets are full of business. The drinking saloons are all open. Cigar stores, grocery stores, variety stores, clothing stores, shoe stores, all kinds of stores wide open and turning an honest penny as they would any other day. The newspapers too are all published on Sunday, and when you look at the Sunday column of amusements—why there are not Sundays enough in the year to get round them all, if you were inclined to visit them. It is the great day for theaters—they are all in blast Sunday nights, and I am told that Sunday is also the great day for the circus. The managers finding it profitable to give two or three performances during the day.

Yesterday (Monday) was an exciting day.—The people of New Orleans elected a Mayor and other city officers. Great apprehensions were entertained of a riot at the polls, but owing to the judicious management and foresight of General Sheridan, everything passed off quietly. He issued an order closing all the drinking houses in the city, and instructed his subordinate officers to keep their men well in hand during the day, ready at a moment's notice to suppress an outbreak of the roughs which was very much feared.

This had the desired effect, and although the feeling was intense no out break occurred.

There was however no issue involving any principle between the two opposing candidates. They were both so far as I can learn fully identified and committed to what is called southern views, southern principles, and southern ideas. Mr. Moore, the successful Union candidate, did not differ essentially from his competitor the Democratic, an out and out southern candidate. But the more fact of his being called the union candidate, was sufficient to defeat him. There are a thousand radical union men in the city—men who approve the action of congress in the work of reconstruction, who did not vote at all. They could have secured the election of Moore, the so called union candidate if they had chosen. But the fight being entirely a family affair between the ex-rebels, they left them to decide between the two candidates for themselves. The people of the city seem determined to put things back as nearly as possible into the same position they were before the surrender of New Orleans. Thus, Mr. Monroe, the successful candidate for Mayor yesterday, is the identical gentleman who, in the capacity of Mayor, surrendered the city to General Butler in 1863. The rebound now put him back in his old position as if nothing had happened. Speaking of General Butler, I observe that he has left his impress upon the city in more ways than one. It appears that prior to the rebellion the city authorities carried an equestrian statue of General Jackson, similar to the one which ornaments the capitol grounds at Washington, to be erected on one of the public squares of the city, also a splendid bronze statue of Henry Clay to be set up in the most fashionable part of the city.

The ordinance authorizing the purchase of these statues, also directed that suitable inscriptions, taken from the writings or speeches of these statesmen should be thereon.

General Butler observed that this part of the requirements of the ordinance had never been complied with, and immediately directed that the following inscriptions should be placed thereon. On the Jackson statue he caused the words, "The Union must and shall be preserved," to be inscribed in large letters, and on the base of the statue of Henry Clay he inscribed the following extract from one of his greatest speeches, "If I could be instrumental in rendering this deepest stain, slavery, from the character of our country I would not exchange the proud satisfaction which I should enjoy, for the honor of all the triumphs ever decreed to the most successful conqueror." It was these palpable hits that made the rebels hate him so genuinely and so intensely.

My letter is already too long to admit of my going into the subject of Southern politics. To judge from the tone of a majority of the Southern papers, Southern speeches and Southern conversation the state of affairs are any thing but encouraging. At a public meeting held in Vicksburgh in the other evening the speakers one and all grew very happy over the action of the President in vetoing the Freedmen's Bureau bill. They all foreshadow and hint at a certain programme which is to restore them and the Northern democracy to power at one and the same time. One speaker said:

"The masses of the Northern people who fought for the Union would not fight for the Radical party. The men who met you at the Charleston and Baltimore Conventions still live; they recognize the great mass of the Southern people as their friends. Could the members of the old Democratic party but hear the speeches made here to-night, they would join you heart and hand, and before the next Presidential election, there would be a democratic party sufficiently strong, to completely overthrow the Radical party."

Another speaker reiterated the same idea in the following words:

"There is an element in the North who can sympathize with an oppressed people, and if the people of the South pass suitable resolutions, other than, unequivocal support to the President, they will be met by that party at the next Presidential election."

There is still another order of Southern sentiment which expresses itself in a different manner, and in certain localities is all powerful to carry out its threats and purposes whenever unhindered by the military authorities. The following is a specimen of their method of procedure as taken from the columns of a Southern paper:

MARSHALL COUNTY, MISS.,
March 1st, 1866.

DR. MELCHER, Lagrange, Tenn. Sir:—You are hereby "ordered" to leave Lagrange and vicinity by the 25th inst. This order includes Baird, Allender, Elliott, Banks (meaning Baum,) Rawlings, and all other negro-worshippers in or about Lagrange. Our motto is peaceable if possible, forcible if necessary. We are determined to get shut of all such characters among us. We are determined! So you all had better leave. You all have fought us for four years, and now think to make your fortunes by selling arms and ammunition to your former slaves to murder ourselves, women and children. But you will be foiled in your schemes.

For the present let it suffice that we are imperative. We have given you all fair warning in time. MANY CITIZENS.

This is the sort of rule which would be imposed in numerous localities at the South should the President's policy prevail and the States be admitted at once. It is against such a state of affairs that the majority in Congress are nobly contending, May the people sustain them.

There are several Pittsburghers sojourning here at this time. Among others are Mr. G. T. McCormick, Mr. Irwin Laughlin and Mr. Chas. Caldwell. The latter gentleman, however, sailed for New York day before yesterday. General Herron is also here, having recently returned to his home. He appears to be doing large and thriving business, is very popular, and is looked upon by the Union men of the city as one of their best and ablest leaders. All Pittsburghers who visit the city are under obligations to him for acts of kindness. Permit me to add, for the benefit of the friends of Messrs. McCormick and Laughlin, that they are both in excellent health, and appear to be enjoying themselves thoroughly.

I hope to visit other important points in the South and will write you frequently.

Very respectfully and truly yours,
ELIAS H. IRISH.

DEATH OF DR. WHEWELL.—Dr. William Whewell, the distinguished mathematician and philosopher, died in England on the 6th inst., at the age of seventy-two years. He was the son of a joiner in Lancaster, England, was educated at the University of Cambridge, and in 1828 was chosen Professor of Mineralogy in that institution. In 1838 he was transferred to the Professorship of Moral Theology, and in 1841 became Master of Trinity College, and also Vice Chancellor. Devoting himself to the study of physical science, Dr. Whewell became distinguished for his original thought, careful research, and valuable contributions to the store of knowledge. His leading works are the "History of the Inductive Sciences," and the "Philosophy of the Inductive Sciences."

Letter from Gov Brownlow.

NASHVILLE, March 8,
Hon. Wm. D. Kelly, House of Representatives
DEAR SIR: Inclosed I send you a copy of my proclamation from which you will learn that a faction of twenty-one disorganizers here, and the true spirit of the late iniquitous rebellion, have withdrawn, and reduced our House of Representatives below a quorum. I need not add further remarks; the proclamation fully discusses the points at issue.

On Friday last the election of county officers took place throughout the State, such as Clerks, Sheriffs, Justices, Trustees, and Tax Collectors; and in Middle and West Tennessee the rebels have made a clean sweep, turning the Union men out and electing their own candidates, who electioneered for office on the ground that they were rebels, and had either served in the rebel army, or in some other capacity had given their influence to the cause of treason and traitors.

When Richmond fell and Lee surrendered, rebels, and many who sympathized with them, were very respectful to Union men—often obsequiously; guilty culprits! they evidently feared arrest and to swallow to live was all they had a right to expect. But since partisan bias has been so multiplied, and no man is punished, they have grown where become impudent and defiant, until in most counties in Middle and West Tennessee it is disreputable to have been a Union man, or, as a Southern man, to have served in the Union army. And matters are growing worse, the reconstructed traitors openly cursing loyal men, and threatening them with shooting, or hanging, declaring that they have the President on their side, while we all feel that the President's policy is ruinous to us.

When I put the President in nomination at Baltimore for the Vice Presidency I felt that he had so thoroughly committed himself to the Union cause, and had been so badly treated by the rebels, it was impossible for him ever to get straightened again; but I give him up as lost to the Union party, and as the man who is to head the rebels and Democrats. Every rebel in all this country, every McClellan and man, and every ex-guerrilla chief, are loud and enthusiastic in praise of the President. The men who but a few months since were cursing him as an Abolitionist and traitor, and wishinghim executed, are now for excusing all who dare to oppose his policy, or even doubt its success.

Theres twixt the amount of bitterness and intolerance in the South to-day toward the Union, and everything Northern, that there was at the time of Lee's surrender. Abuse of Union men, of the Radical majority in Congress, and self assumed superiority on the part of the Southern chivalry, have arisen to such a hight that loyal men cannot travel on a steamboat, or in a railroad car, without being insulted. As it was during the war, so it is now—all concessions from the North, or from the majority in Congress, are regarded as evidences of fear. All the old rebel papers of 1861, and many new ones, are in full blast threatening Congress and the North with ultimate vengeance, and boasting of Southern prowess. The most popular men in the largest portion of Tennessee to-day are the men most distinguished for their hostility to the North, and what are passed to call the "Radical Congress," and they are the class of men selected to fill offices, as the late county election shows. That same is true of the entire South, only to a greater extent! In a word, they are resolved on breaking up the Government, and they expect to carry out their schemes through the ballot box. And how men of candor and intelligence can represent them as loyal and kindly disposed is a mystery to me, even in this age of rebelion and treachery. I do not understand them, and my opportunities for learning their temper and ultimate purposes are as good as those of most men.

Why, sir, many of them are expecting the President to disperse Congress with the bayonet, as Cromwell dispersed the long Parliament. The Southern heart is rapidly being fired to deeds of war, and all this, and more, as I beleive, has been caused by mistakes of the President. His plan of trusting rebels with their State Governments has had an effect exactly the opposite of what he intended. It has ruined the prospects of the Union men, and they feel that there is no safety for them, unless Congress shall choose to protect them. Even three days ago Gen. Thomas had to send troops into Marshall county, some sixty miles distant, to protect loyal men and freedmen, who were fleeing for safety, and coming to this city.

So far as I am individually concerned the intemperate abuse of rebels, the denunciation and ostracism of their reconstructed journals, the threats of personal violence from the unrestored patriots, and the anonymous letters of cowards threatening my assassination, all fall harmless at my feet. No earthly power can drive me from the support of the men and party who fought the battles of the late war, and put down the rebellion.

Very respectfully, your ob't serv't,
W. G. BROWNLOW,
Governor of Tennessee.

The Fall in Prices.

Prices of goods of all descriptions are falling. The decline was great yesterday; though some kinds of merchandise were held by owners with considerable firmness, so much effort to make sales has rarely been put forth, and the disposition was everywhere manifest to close transactions and to "realize." The concession in dress goods is large; it extends to prints and all fine fabrics; on standards and woolens it is the lightest.

The fall in one month, on the basis of some of the prices of goods sold at auction yesterday, is reported to be fully one hundred per cent., but this is of course no criterion whatever, of the market. The average decline may not exceed twenty or twenty-five per cent. in that line.

There is a very general feeling of insecurity in business circles, amounting almost to a panic in some quarters; and this adds to the depression. Nobody questions the policy of sell ng; but the public, and particularly the men in business do not readily buy.—N. Y. Post.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

AYER'S PILLS—Are you Sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order with your system deranger and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by attending to the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fountains of life run healthfully in their natural channels. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and deranges its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and their surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and derangement. While in this condition, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the joyous feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint is no less true in many of the deep seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect produces the same cures. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly and many of them surely cured by the same agency. None who know the virtue of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure, such as Headache, Foul Stomach, Dysentery, Bilious Complaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Jaundice, Dropsy, Constipation, Heartburn, Rheumatism, Drowsiness, Dizziness and Suppression, when taken in large doses.

They are sugar coated, so that the most sensitive can take them easily, and they are surely the best purgative medicine yet discovered.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,
For the speedy cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and the various Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in a disordered derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it is this great superiority over other Ague medicines, that it subdues the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or other deleterious substance, nor does it produce quinism or any injurious effect whatever. Shaking brothers of the army and the west, try it and you will realize these assertions.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

WEDNESDAY, March 21, 1866.

In consequence of the fluctuations in gold, and the feeling of uncertainty in reference to the national finances, prices of commodities have become almost wholly nominal and will necessarily be unsettled until a steady level is found for the financial barometer again. The condition of the foreign exchanges lately has looked favorably for an adjustment of that level to lower figures than it has lately had, but that will not be regarded as permanent, though it is not improbable that margins for foreign shipments may be had for some of our commodities, and these low fluctuations in gold be maintained. A reaction, however, will be hoped for by all holders of commodities, and lower ranges of prices for them will be a result of a money pressure, rather than a complete surrender of the expectation of a recovery. A buyer of anything is now very generally found to be gauging his purchases to narrowest limits; even the retail purchases are light, and, were credits largely or loosely extended, not much further stagnation would be necessary to force sales and produce general disorder in business.

Gold was a shade firmer to-day in New York, fluctuating between 128@128¼, against 127½@128 yesterday. The following table will show the highest and lowest points touched each month since January 1180?

—The following are given as the points of a bill introduced by Mr. Hooper in the House of Representatives:

It extends the act of March 3, 1865, and empowers the Secretary of the Treasury to sell any description of the bonds authorized by that act, at rates not below par, and to receive in payment therefor any existing notes, bonds or certificates. It also requires the Secretary of the Treasury to retire an amount of existing notes, bonds or certificates equal to the amount of the new bonds sold. It further provides that the public debt shall not be increased, and after the 1st of July, 1866, the increase of currency, or demand and temporary loans is not to exceed 4 per cent.

—The defeat of the Loan Bill in Congress, yesterday, does not surprise us. Apart from the objections which were urged against the bill, as to conferring too much power on the Secretary of the Treasury, there was a healthy opposition to the foreign loan clause, which would of itself have defeated the measure. The alarm felt in commercial circles during the past sixty days regarding the course which Mr. McCulloch was likely to pursue in carrying out his policy of "contraction" so as to bring the country back to specie payments, has evidently been appreciated in Congress. We trust Congress will now speedily pass a bill which will plainly indicate what course is to be pursued in connection with the national finances, so that business men may know definately what to rely upon. The uncertainty which has existed in commercial circles for three months past is neither beneficial to the Government nor the people.—Chicago Tribune.

—From the 1st to the 16th of March, instant, the balances in the United States Treasury, subject to the draft of the United States Treasurer; increased according to a statement communicated by the secretary of the House of Representatives on Saturday, from $16,059,958 to $123,423,885—being a gain in ten days of $7,404,826. Of thi. increase, two millions are in coin and over five millions in currency. These increasing cash balances foreshadow an early reduction of the interest on the outstanding $70,063,000 or $80,000,000 of 6 per cent certificates of deposit, in currency, if nothing of the $33,000,000 or 40,000,000 greenback 5 per cent special certificates held, as on instant demand by the New York, Philadelphia and Boston Clearing-house Associated Banks. This last arrangement was not originated by Mr. Secretary McCulloch, who, we doubt not, is satisfied that such financiering is wholly contrary (and for the Government) improvident. The greenbacks held in reserve to pay these instant demands are of no possible use to the Treasury, while the interest paid to the Associated Banks, for the privelege of locking them up, is about two millions per annum. Instead of paying 5 per cent interest to the banks for the privilege of locking up legal tenders, the banks ought, through their Clearing-house, to thank the Treasury for the trouble and responsibility assumed in substituting certificates on demand.

New York Stocks, Dry Goods and Money.

MONEY AND STOCKS.

NEW YORK, March 21.—The plethora of money continues and the supply is very large. The brokers get accommodated at 6 per cent. on call for moderate sums, and 5 per cent. for large amounts. The gold market closed up steadily at 128¼@128⅝. The Railway Share market was firmer at the second board, and rather higher on some chique stocks After call the whole market was lower, with an increased disposition to sell. The following were the closing prices at 4:30 p.m.: New York Central, 93¾; Erie, 80¾; Hudson River, 107¾; Reading, 103¾; Michigan Central, 103¾; Michigan Southern, 81¾; Illinois Central, 116¾; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 80¾; Cleveland and Toledo, 110; Rock Island, 112¾; Fort Wayne, 93¾. BREADSTUFFS AND PROVISIONS.

There was nothing doing in breadstuffs for export, but there are some provisions going forward. These are rumors on 'Change of failures among the produce men of Chicago. The provision trade is undergoing another Eastman excitement on a small scale. It appears that a member of a prominent provision firm on the lower part of Broad street has suddenly disappeared, and with him about one hundred thousand dollars cash. The affair is creating considerable talk in insurance circles, about insolvent companies, but nothing definite has yet transpired. It is pretty broadly hinted, however, that there are some concerns that will, ere long, pass into the hands of receivers.

DRY GOODS.

The following are the quotations at the New York Dry Goods Exchange, March 21, jobbers' prices: The Dry Goods Market is steady to-day, with a little better feeling. Brown Sheetings—Wachusett, 36c; Pinch, 34c; Stark, 32c. Bleached Sheetings—Bates, 38c; Blackstone, 36c. Prints—Arnimac W, 21c; Merrimac, D, 29c; Darnell, 25c; Freemont, 25c. Delaines—Manchester, 23½c. Cambrics—Washington, 25c; Portland, 15c. Silesias—Clinton, 30c; Hamilton, 25c. Canton Flannels—Hamilton, 37c. Ticks—York, 39 inch, 37½c; York, 30 inch, 47½c. CARPETS.

The carpet trade is active. English Tapestry Brussels declined 5c. American Ingrain in good demand.

The Boot and Shoe trade is good. There are large sales of goods making at auction, and heavy bargains quite in demand.

HARDWARE.

The Hardware trade is falling off, files and cutlery are higher; there is a decline in shot and lead, of 2c per pound.

MINING STOCKS.

The following are the prices of Mining Stocks bid in Boston to-day: Copper Falls, 32½; Franklin, 38½; Hancock, 17½; Minnesota, 10; Quincey, 66; Bay State, 9½; Boston Water Power, 24¾.

Philadelphia Cattle Market.

PHILADELPHIA, March 19.—There was but a small attendance at Fischer & Acton's Avenue Yard this morning, owing in a measure to the inclement state of the weather and the ill feeling existing between the drovers and the butchers, in reference to the changing of market day from Monday to Thursday. The change was proposed and strongly advocated by the former, they thereby hoping to be relieved from business on Sunday; but as a general thing it met with no countenance from the butchers, they asserting that as the business had been transacted on Mondays for years past no advantages could be gained by a change at this late day. The attendance on Mondays and Thursdays, since the change, has been very small, and if the drovers will but consult their own interest, they will wisely adopt the old plan. Prices are about the same as last week. The offerings reach 1600 head, at 13@14½c, for extra, 12@13½c, for fair, and 10@12½c for common.

Sheep.—Receipts have fallen off, only 5000 head having arrived. There is a good demand, with sales at 7@8c per lb, gross, the latter rate for extra fat sheep.

Hogs.—Receipts at the Union Hog Yard, about 507 head, with a moderate business doing at $14@15 per 100 lbs, net, 600 head sold at the Avenue Yard at from $13 to $15 per 100 lbs, net, the letter figure for corn fed.—Inquirer.

Cincinnati Seed Market.

CINCINNATI, March 19.—The receipts of clover are not so liberal, but as the season is drawing to a close an increased anxiety is manifested to sell, and further concessions of 50c per bushel were made, but without leading to much business, and the market closed heavy at $5.50. The supply is still large, and we do not think forced sales could be made at over $5. A considerable portion of the stock is in the hands of speculators, and was bought early in the season at high prices, and no doubt a large portion will be held over until next year. Timothy was quiet early in the week at $3@3.10 for prime samples, but closes steady at these rates. Flax is also lower, and in but moderate request at $2.40 for prime.

New York Market.

NEW YORK, March 21.—Cotton slightly in favor of buyers, at 38@40c for Middling. Flour more active, and prices without decided change, at $7.10@7.50 for Extra State; $8.15@8.65 for Extra R. H. Barley in fair request at 80c for State and $1.15@1.16 for Canada Western. Corn less active and declining, at 70@75c for unsound and 74@76c for sound mixed Western; 80c for sound yellow delivered, and 64c for damaged. Oats dull and drooping, at 52@60c for sound mixed Western and 53c for sound. Coffee dull. Sugar dull at 18¾c for Porto Rico and Cuba Muscovado; Havana, 11¾@12¾c. Molasses dull; Porto Rico, 70@75c. Petroleum dull, at 24½@ 25c for crude, and 48@50c for refined. Pork heavy and lower, at $25.50@25.75 for New Mess, closing at $25.50 cash; $25.50 for Old do, $21.50@22 for Prime; also, 1,500 barrels New Mess, for April and May, seller's option, $25.50@25.87. Beef steady, at $16@20 for Plain Mess, and $20@28 for New Extra Mess. Beef hams heavy at $37@38.50. Cut meats are steady; sales of 200 packages at 11¼@12¼c for shoulders and 16@18¾c for hams. Bacon quiet, at 17½@18c for Cumberland Cut and 15¾@16c for short ribbed. Lard heavy and lower, at 17@ 18¾c, small sales at 18¾@19c. Butter quiet, at 28@45c for Ohio and 40@60c for State. BOATS LEAVING TO-DAY.

The river, under the influence of the recent heavy rains, is again rising rapidly, with twelve feet in the channel by the Allegheny marks last evening—having risen three feet during the twenty-four hours ending at that time. The weather continues cloudy and unsettled, with indications of more rain, notwithstanding it was somewhat colder than on Tuesday.

Business continues exceedingly dull at the Monongahela wharf, the offerings of freight for all points being very limited, notwithstanding the rates are down considerably, and what is more still, there are no visible signs at present of any immediate improvement. There are quite a number of boats in port, waiting for their turn to load, and those that are in turn, find it very slow work in picking up a trip.

There was not a single transient arival yesterday, and we believe there are no boats due. The Lorena, from St. Louis, Kate Robinson, from Louisville, and Rohlt. Moore, from Cincinnati, are among the first boats due.

The Savaana cleared for the Upper Mississippi about daylight yesterday morning, and the Americus, for New Orleans, got off early in the forenoon. The latter boat had an excellent trip, including quite a number of passengers. The Savana, also, had a very fair trip.

It was reported yesterday that the restriction imposed on the shipment of petroleum on steamers, has already or soon will be removed. This will be gratifying news to steamboatmen as freights are remarkably scarce, and besides there is no more danger attending the shipment of either crude or refined petroleum, than there is in shipping whisky, lard oil and some other articles of freight classification.

The Edinburg, Capt. Thompson, is filling up steadily for Cincinnati and Louisville, and will be ready to take her departure to-day or to-morrow, and passengers and shippers should bear this fact in mind.

The Financier, Capt. Darragh, is now loading for New Orleans, and she will take her departure as soon as loaded. Mr. Russell the clerk, will see that shippers and passengers receive every proper attention.

The Armadillo, Capt. Sweeney, is loading for the Missouri river, and the Camelia, Capt. Lytle, is loading for Nashville. They are both first cabin passenger steamers.

The tow-boat A. J. Baker left Louisville a few days since, with nine barges in tow, containing about 140,000 bushels of coal.

The Yorktown and Lorena left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Monday evening last.

The Cincinnati Commercial, of Tuesday, says:

Capt. Charlie Mulleman yesterday sold his new and splendid Cincinnati and Wheeling packet Phil. Sheridan to Capt. W. F. Davidson, of St. Paul, for the Lacrosse and Saint Paul trade, for $90,000. She leaves for Wheeling this evening. On her return she will load for Pittsburgh, where she will trade a through trip, for St. Paul direct, leaving Cincinnati for St. Paul on the 10th of April. Our Mississippi river friends may anticipate the King Bee of the Upper Mississippi in the Phil. Sheridan.
